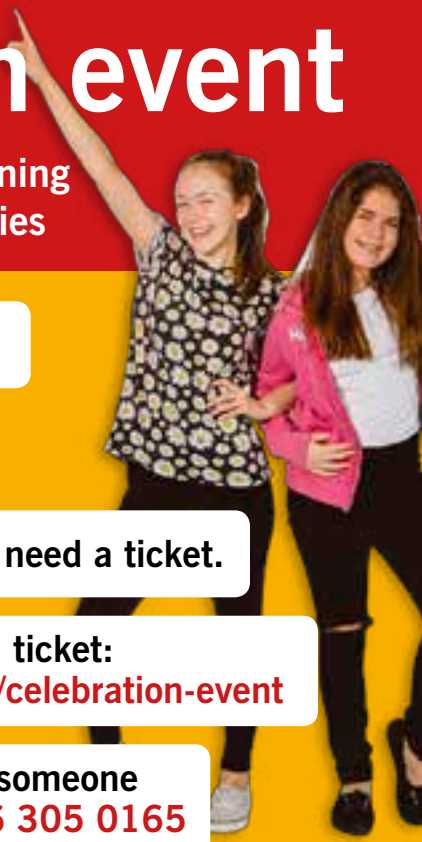
Information

crafts & stalls

A celebration event

For people in Leicestershire with learning disabilities and their carers and families



Saturday 24 June 2017 , 11am – 3pm

Police HQ, Enderby

The event is free of charge but you will need a ticket.

Please go online to book a ticket:
www.leicestershire.gov.uk/celebration-event

If you can't get online, or someone can't help you – call 0116 305 0165

This event is being run by Leicestershire's Learning Disability Partnership Board.

Advice on keeping healthy and well

Wheelchair friendly exercises, information about diabetes and cancer screening

Food and drink

Demonstrations and home made food

A fun zone

Smoothie bike, nail art, inflatable games, crafts and meet the ponies!

Keep safe

With Warning Zone and anti-bullying advice and how to keep safe on the computer. Plus ambulance, fire and police services

Changing Places toilets

A facility with a hoist will be available for visitors Please bring your own sling if you wish to use the hoist - visit www.mobiloo.org.uk to check details.

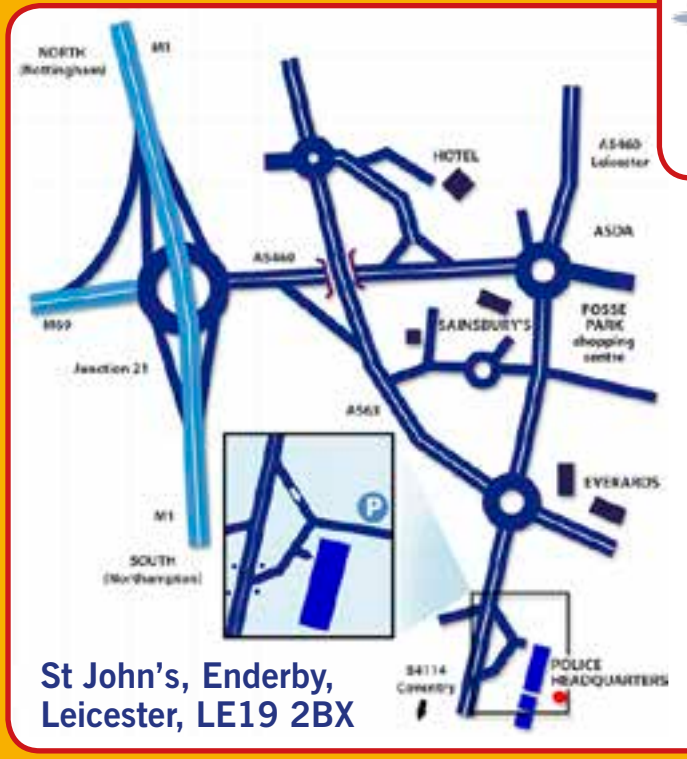
A talent show

Come along and see the finalists at the 'especially talented' show

Information stalls

supporting you in the home and when you're out and about

Venue: Police HQ, Enderby, Leicester



St John's, Enderby, Leicester, LE19 2BX

You will need to make your own transport arrangements to get to the event at Police HQ.

If you need support at the event – you will be responsible for bringing someone with you.

If you need more information, please contact:
jane.bromley@leics.gov.uk
0116 305 7993