What will it be about?

Later this year Mencap is launching their new Health campaign. This workshop is about knowing your rights when you receive healthcare.

This event is open to people with a learning disability, carers and supporters who have a interest in getting to know their rights on Health.

You can also find out more about Mencap's new Health campaign and how we can make this work locally and what Mencap will be doing nationally.

Places are limited so please contact:
