

The Communication Group

What are our plans for this year?

We are going to look at better ways to do communication training

We are going to help people learn how to sign

We are going to help people make information easier to understand

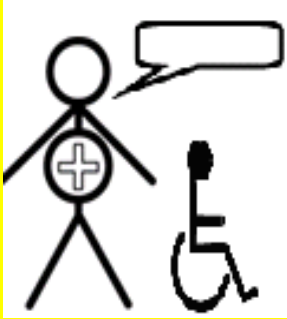

We are going to help people put together good Communication Passports

We are going to help people understand and use the guidelines for people with profound and multiple learning disabilities

We are going to improve our information on websites

We are going to do more work with the Speaking Up for Health
Group
