

Partnership Board Meeting 8th January 2015

Self Advocates Transitions Workshop Feedback

Who or what would help you make difficult decisions?

- Workshops in schools to help learn the skills
- Tools like One Page Profile – some quick information that helps people support me and know me
- Accessible information about choices in our local area
- Knowing what we are good at
- Knowing what we want to achieve
- When looking at where to live. Social worker to chat with us.
- Support to look at places to live
- Understand how much it costs and if you can pay
- Choice led bidding – this is how you apply for a house with the Council. It is very complicated and difficult to do. You have to go to see places not just have information on a computer.
- Can we have places to live that are near to shops?

What decisions do other people make for you?

- Other people to understand we need flexible support
- Healthy choices and medical support
- Financial decisions – decisions about money
- Important to practice making decisions
- Important to learn from mistakes

What decisions do you make for yourself?

- What I spend money on
- What bank to have an account with
- What college I go to
- What food I eat
- Where I live and who I live with
- What activities I do
- Work placements
- How I travel
- Paying bills
- Work people on own / with people
