

Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland (LLR) Autism and Learning Disability Services

Every Voice
Counts

Every Voice Counts

- Engaging
- Listening
- Involving
- Informing

The Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland (LLR) Autism and Learning Disability Partnership Boards are working to plan and shape services to support:

- People with Autism their carers and families
- People with Learning Disabilities their carers and families

What do we want to do?

We want to involve as many people as we can. We want to hear the voices of people with learning disabilities.

This will help us to improve our services. We want to improve health, education, housing, leisure, and social care.

Why do we want to do this?

This helps us all work together and build stronger links. We want to get things right and do the right things.

It gives people the chance to shape their own services.

This helps services get better by hearing the voice of the people who use them.

How do we want to do this?

We want to try different ways to hear what things people like and don't like.

People could tell us their stories in

- a story
- a poem or diary
- a picture or photographs
- in a film or song.

What do we want you to do?

We want people to share their own stories with us.
